The Cottage
Ingoose

My dear friend

An injunction is ipsed by the District judge that no action Should be taken on the proceedings of the last meeting of the Trustees as the Govt and the President, Secretary and two other Trustees had taken a different view to delay the retirement of the Head Master

until further communication is issued by the District Judge.
A very funny situation indeed!

Yours sincerely
A Narasimhan
